QUESTION OF WATER AGAIN

People Clamoring for the Extension of Mains in Various Directions.

Cabinet Discusses Cutting Down the Yard—
Want to Be Plumbing Inspector—Franchise Not Yet Completed.

The Board of Public Works will, within the next few days, take up the question of the extension of the city water mains on the various streets which are not now so provided. It has been some time since anything has been done in this direction other than in isolated cases, and it has been the source of a great deal of complaint from people of high and low degree. Petitions are now on file in the board's office which bear the date of 1891, and which run on from that all through 1892, and many have been coming in the present season. There are in all about forty petitions which the board will consider when they take up the question. They represent the territory in the neighborhood and extending along Belmont street, Hall place, that east of Woodruff Place, Oak Hill, Ninth street, Park avenue above Bruce street, Fletcher avenue and extensions on the east and west ends of Washington street. Just how many will be ordered has not yet been determined, nor will it be until the board has the matter in actual contemplation. It was, however, promised the signers of the various petitions that it will do all that it can do to accede to their demands, and there will be all done in the matter that can consistently.

Candidates for Plumbing Inspector. Either to-day or to-morrow the Board of Health will appoint a plumbing inspector in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance passed by the Council at its last meeting. That ordinance goes into effect on Saturday, which necessitates almost an immediate appointment. The position pays a salary of $1,500 a year, and as its duties are not of the most arduous nature, it is a position considerably sought after. The board has been besieged with the friends and the enemies of the various applicants for the last two weeks, and the campaign is a warm one. The fight has narrowed down between two men, one of whom has the indorsement of the master plumbers, and the other who has the indorsement of the journeymen. The former is James Brennan, and the latter is Mr. E. H. Hudson. Each has a number of names attached in recommendation to his application, and the friends of each are doing a considerable lobbying work in his favor. Henry Hudson is also spoken of in connection with the place, but he has put in no application for it. There are, however, a number of indorsements to his candidacy at the office of the board. John C. Dunn is also spoken of. The board has not as yet made up its mind as to the appointment, nor has it discussed it. President Morrison said that the board did not intend to appoint any one who did not have the clerical ability to keep a suitable set of books recording the doings of his office, and that the appointee must have an education outside of that of a plumber.

Mayor's Cabinet Discusses Things. The regular monthly cabinet meeting of the Mayor and the members of his board, the city controller and the city attorney was held last night in the private office of the Mayor. All of the officials were present, with the exception of Drs. Morrison and Cook, of the Board of Health, who were in attendance on the commencement exercises of the Indiana Medical College. The meeting was only a short one, and the principal matter discussed was the proposed leveling of the courthouse yard so as to bring it on a level with the street. The County Commissioners, who propose to do this, estimate that it will cost something like $10,000, and they will demand on its completion a doubling yearly of the city tax, which is now $1,500. The Board of Public Works was instructed to confer with the commissioners about it, and to report what they thought of the matter. The city will also be given an additional room on the next floor of the building. President Morrison, of the Board of Safety, brought several police matters up for discussion, but no action was taken on them. The proposed garbage plant was discussed, and it was determined to transfer some of the money which is now in the street improvement fund for that effect. This the Council will be asked to do at its meeting Monday night. The street railway franchise was not touched upon save that the members of the Board of Public Works said they had it all completed with the exception of four sections.

Sprinkling Wagon Due. Saturday, the 1st day of April, will herald the reappearance of the sprinkling wagon on the streets unless the time-honored "rain fools" day may move the spirit of the contractors. The relief is not coming too soon. Yesterday was an ideal one in all respects save that of dust. The air had a spring balminess that called all who were able to be so out of doors, and then the strong west wind which was blowing would send scurrying clouds of dust into their faces with persistence that forced back into their houses and stores. Closed windows and doors had no power to keep the dust out, and merchants kept their stores busy with dust brushes making their wares look presentable. The sprinkling will be hailed by none with greater sense of relief than by the policemen who stand at the down town corners all during the day. With one or two of them it has resulted in a case of almost temporary blindness. The laws of the force do not permit any of its officers to wear glasses or goggles, and the men spoken of have had a hard time to keep their eyes from swelling shut from the irritation.

Right to Enforce Extensions. The Mayor and his Board of Works were at work all of yesterday afternoon on the street-railway franchise, and have not yet completed it. They are stuck upon a snag which needs a legal interpretation, and with them yesterday was the city attorney and Judge Ayres. The members of the board are little disposed to talk on the subject, but it is understood that the sticking point is as to whether the city will have the right to reserve the right to itself to order any company securing the franchise to make such extensions as the city may wish to declare a forfeiture of the franchise. Bart Parker was at work all of the day putting the sheets of the board into typewritten form as fast as they were prepared.

LOW DIVE BROKEN UP.

Cyrians in Charge of the Coney Island Resort Behind the Bars.

Stella Caylor and Mabel Green, a couple of abandoned white women, were arrested at Coney Island yesterday by officers Simpson and Carter and looked up in the police station. The women for some months past have been in charge of Phil Franklin's notorious resort at Coney Island, and have been the cause of much uproar at that disreputable place. Two weeks ago the proprietor, who is a burly negro, was arrested and named Cal Voria in a row over the Green woman, and last fall another man received a bullet in the head while basking in the sun of the cyprians.

On Sunday last both women engaged in a general fight, and since then the police have kept a close watch on their actions. The officers claim to have enough evidence to convict the women of the crime of enticing young girls under fourteen years of age to run, and propose to pursue an unrelenting course against everybody connected with the resort.

FREE KINDERGARTEN DAY.

The Ministers of the City Asked to Devote Their Sermons on April 23 to This Work.

The ladies in charge of the free kindergartens have issued the following address: To the Ministers of the City: The ladies of the free kindergartens board have circulated a petition, asking the ministers of the city to devote the morning service of April 23 to the interests of the poor children of the city. First, that the Christian people may know of the good work that is being done through the free kindergartens and that they may better understand the theory upon which Froebel has founded this unique system of child culture, and second, knowing these things, that they may be not only willing, but anxious to aid with money and other practical ways this greatest of all missionary enterprises. The ministers named below have kindly agreed to present the subject to their respective congregations, and the kindergarten board, finding the effort to personally interview every minister in the city too arduous, are heartily begging that all the churches, without regard to sect or prior action, enter heartily into the plan of establishing a Froebel anniversary Sunday.

If you are not familiar with the work you are asked to spend a few hours at 321 West Pearl street. They are going to open a school for young women, Mrs. Blaker's training school for young women, any school-day afternoon, in the Pearl-street building. The following ministers have acceded to this request: J. A. Roththaler, Henry A. Buchtel, F. E. Deschamps, H. A. Cleveland, Sanford A. Edson, M. L. Haines, Joseph A. Milburn, W. F. Taylor, C. A. Van Ande, D. H. Lucas, George Cochran, G. Mackintosh, G. A. Cardensen, J. H. Kauter, G. S. Sargent, J. C. Peters, A. R. Steek, John M. Haack, A. N. Thompson, John C. Marting, C. C. Edwards, E. INDIANA DENTISTS.

Jubilee Gathering Begins with Clinics and Public Exercises.
